

Adelante Ambassadors

Adelante Ambassadors is a select group of mature students who serve as leaders and role models to other students and represent Adelante at community events and activities. Adelante counts on its Ambassadors to take on leadership roles within our organization and entrusts those students to make suggestions to improve our service to the Hispanic community. Ambassadors also complete additional service projects and attend special events and activities as a group.

Because we are a student leadership organization, we hold our Ambassadors to higher expectations than the average student: (1) We require our Ambassadors to be in attendance and actively participate in all Adelante programs. (2) We want our Ambassadors to act as “connectors” by making friends with new students in the program and encouraging intermingling between cliques and friend groups. (3) We expect our Ambassadors to assist staff, volunteers, and presenters in the weekly operation of Adelante (sometimes that means showing up early!).
